Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming

Babar is a young elephant who returns to the jungle where he builds the city of Celesteville and is crowned King of the Elephants. A dedicated ruler and family-elephant, Babar experiences many challenges as he journeys through life, and learns to rise above them through strength and optimism. Each episode begins with a look into Babar's present life, primarily in his role as a father who teaches his children the value of people, things and relationships through his own experience from the jungle to the city. Each episode in the show carries with it a social-emotional message that is established at the end of Babar's story.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming

Dragon is a cheerful, lovable and curious blue dragon who lives in a colorful little house and welcomes all his friends and anyone else who needs comfort or advice. Every day Dragon faces a new situation that needs to be solved, and he does it in his unique Dragon-like way. If he can't get it right the first time, he keeps trying until he does. With each story, we find a new way to learn simple life skills through Dragon and his friends, Cat, Ostrich, Beaver, Alligator, and Mail Mouse.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming

3-2-1 Penguins and Larryboy Stories draws upon characters from two stories and uses both long and short form material involving these characters to provide socio-emotional messages to children. 3-2-1 Penguins features two children, Jason and Michelle, whose vacation at their grandmother's cottage ends up being more adventure than they expect when their toy spaceship with four toy penguins comes to life. The children are sucked into the spaceship, where they meet the now live penguins and journey through space to solve an inter-galactic disaster threatening the penguins and their friends. Each story begins with a problem and ends after the children have learned an important socio-emotional message through their adventure with the penguins. Larryboy Stories is about a young cucumber-janitor named Larry from the Daily Bumble who assumes a superhero persona to fight crimes and save lives, bringing peace and safety to the small town of Bumblyburg. In doing so, Larry takes us through adventures where he and his viewers learn core values of honesty, friendship, respect for others, forgiveness, and love for all through socio-emotional messages embedded within the story.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming

Veggietales, narrated by animated veggies, Bob the Tomato and Larry the Cucumber, teach life lessons through wit and humor. Each episode contains one or two short animated stories that illustrate core values to children in an entertaining way. Stories are interrupted with silly songs, usually sung by Larry the Cucumber, that contain whacky lyrics in a catchy tune. Each episode ends with Bob and Larry reinforcing the lesson learned through the stories.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming

Jane and the Dragon is a coming of age story about a middle-class, medieval girl who lives in the Royal Court with her family. As an only child, Jane is raised to be a Lady-in-Waiting but through her determination and a stroke of luck, she ends up being trained as a Knight in the King's Guard. Accompanied by her best friend, a giant green Dragon that lives in her backyard, Jane experiences a series of adventures that test her character and her skills as a young knight in a castle full of friends and foes. Each episode in the show takes us through the problems and challenges Jane encounters and the process she goes through to find the solutions for them.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming

Jacob Two-Two is a very little boy with a very big heart. As the youngest member of a large family, Jacob has to say things twice so he can be heard. He looks up to his siblings, but tends to be ignored or bullied by them when he tries to be a part of their activities. However, he does get noticed when he inadvertently lands himself in adventures that involve mysterious neighbors, international spies, and villains that come in all shapes and sizes. Often accompanied by his closest pals, Buford and Renee, Jacob Two-Two finds innovative ways to get in and out of hot water as he tumbles through a series of exciting adventures with honesty, integrity and a whole lot of determination.
